Know

- Baptism by water and by the Holy Spirit can be considered the 2-step verification process for Christianity.
  - It is God (the Father) who controls the final and most important step i.e. who actually receives the Holy Spirit.

Understand

- Baptism by water is paired with the act of repentance (pro-active change).
  - This means that there is no point baptizing yourself if you do not actually commit to living a Christian lifestyle.
- Baptism by the Holy Spirit is the reception of the Holy Spirit, and it is granted by God to those who He judges as faithful towards Him and genuine in their lifestyle change.
  - This means that the Holy Spirit is only granted to people who actually follow the instructions that lead to the salvation of the soul i.e. 'Calling: Special Edition'.

Do

- (1) Begin to identify the behaviors and actions that you do which you know are wrong, and address and stop them one-by-one based on what you think God hates the most.
  - The VMFCP Basic Standards and the 'WHAT NOT TO DO LIST' featured in the glossary section of 'Calling: Special Edition' can help you identify necessary areas of change (repentance).

Do

- (2) You are able to complete the baptism of water by yourself. You don't have to fully submerge yourself in water (you can if you want to), but a little sprinkle of water on your head is more than enough (author testimony, 'Calling: Special Edition').
- BAPTISM PRAYER: Thank you Lord for Your goodness, grace, love, mercy and compassion. With this baptism by water, I confess and repent of my sins for which I seek Your forgiveness: [confess sins that you are genuine sorry and remind Him of the sins you have stopped]. For these things I am truly sorry [and/or I do not want to do them any longer]. I accept you as my Lord and God, and I hope and pray that You accept me as Your child. It is my heart's desire to walk and live by faith, and in this I ask for Your help so that I may receive the Holy Spirit according to Your grace. IJNIP and give thanks to You. Amen.

Remember

Baptism by the Holy Spirit occurs at God's discretion.

You can receive the Holy Spirit from God once He is convinced of (1) your genuine intention to repent and (2) evidence of repentance (change) in your lifestyle (God knows if you will truly follow Him based on His foreknowledge, and so, it cannot be "faked". Acts 15:18-19). The reception of the Holy Spirit is characterized by an intense feeling of joy and warmth in your heart (author testimony, 'Calling: Special Edition'), and briefly speaking in tongues, which can be described as speaking, but not knowing what you are saying. Tongues is a language unknown to people, but known by and from God. (Author testimony, and references Acts 2:4, Acts 19:6, and Acts 10:45-46).
