The signs of the times 3: A revelation, and reproof of the wicked and the wise

ARTICLE HIGHLIGHTS

- Revelation and reproof.
- The one who conquers.
- A waste of gifts and skills – the reality of a captive scribe.
- The foolish woman & the forbidden woman – the spiritual title of all bootleg & illegitimate endeavors

ARTICLE SUMMARY

The article, 'The signs of the times: the mark of the beast is a metaphor', highlighted that Babylon, which is the spiritual title of England, and its daughter nations, which are also referred to as the 'Satanic league of nations', are responsible for causing and triggering the "end of the age" and therefore the divine judgement of the entire world. The consequence of Babylon's Satanic inspired, planned and continued actions is that Christian conversion (receiving the Holy Spirit) is necessary for those with the mark of the beast (TMOTB), because nothing else is able to break the Satanic oath they are bound to. Yet even Christianity has its standards, which have been lowered for the sake of grace. Hence, the Lord is making use of divine judgement to remove the entire world of truly "bad" people, which is simply the remedy to Babylon (and its allies) encouraging acts of evil. Therefore, it needs to be clear that there are people that the Lord will not choose to save, which means that not everyone will become Christian, and this is a reality that every person, different ethnicities and nations must face with courage and honesty.

REVELATION AND REPROOF

Here is a revelation and reproof to the wicked and the wise: it is not good to reject free bread, wine and milk (Isaiah 55), because such actions are simply poor decision making and error, which is the opposite of salvation. In brief, Isaiah chapter 55 comes into effect because I hold the spiritual title of King David, and so, it should be known that the Lord always wanted to save many people, but certain things may have needed to happen to make people “believe” or “see” (Elekwachi, 2021a). To my foes and “lost” Christians, a “commander” is someone who provides instructions (teachings or commands/commandments) about how to be Christian. Therefore, the formation of an actual militia who actively tries to “conquer” other people “by force” is not required in the process of salvation. This is expressed because I know that (1) my foes cannot read at all, for example it is worth expressing that “God’s domain” is not a website (The Gospel of Thomas), it is entering the Body of Christ (receiving the Holy Spirit) and (2) they misguided and inspired by “the deep things of Satan” and the “teachings of Balaam”, and so, I am merely helping them to finally “understand” the error of their ways even if it is futile, and that is because Biblical knowledge is always helpful and interesting to the wise who may read it. Hence, it needs to be repeated that the Lord only raises up a Servant when He desires to save many people regardless of what they have done (Isaiah 55:7), whether poor, working class, rich, wealthy, ‘dead’ Christians, unfaithful “Christians” or religious converts from across different religions such as Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, or Confucians.

Therefore, it is time that people realize that their choices do not only have an effect on those that they persecute, but also themselves, which means: if people do not stop Christian persecution then their fate is sealed. So yes, I am the one who “reproves in the gate” (Isaiah 29:21, Psalm 118), which means that I explain the way of righteousness, but in all Truth, it is the Lord, the Most High God, who permits or denies entry into His Kingdom. As revealed in the updated version of the first signs of the times series article and the Biblical History article, ‘Inheritance: Blood, culture and land heritage’, I am the anonymous source, and so it is obvious that I have done what I was able to do with “little power” in unfavorable circumstances, and so, to my foes and uncourageous potential Christian converts who may read this article, why would I be blamed for other people’s lack of pro-activity? I am merely a private citizen, who did nothing but react to the “abomination of desolation” and continued unrelentless persecution by trying to help other people, and so, of course I was always blameless in this circumstance. After all, my natural good-hearted response was to dedicate my time to more Biblical study; further developing my Biblical literacy skills; taking the initiative to make use of my research and teaching knowledge, skills and experience for the sake of other people. Furthermore, when I realized that it was the “end of the age”, I ensured that my work was done in a way that maximized the little time that is left, and therefore it was somewhat of an emergency response. However, it is time for other people to understand that it is an emergency situation, and so, in such times the most important matter is putting influential and well-functioning structures in place to help as many people as possible through the “end of the age”, but not much else. Therefore, for church leadership and church workers who by chance happened to read my article, 'The signs of the times: the mark of the beast is a metaphor', but chose not to do anything for whatever reason, whether it was out of devotion to Satan; not wanting to admit a multitude of grievous errors; a complete lack of courage; or simply a lack of humility that may be associated with varying degrees of pride, jealousy or bitterness. I am aware that many denominations and those within them do not favor young African women, but my work speaks for itself, and it says that I am a legitimate Christian and a Scribe. The truth is that reform is nothing new for many church denominations, and legitimate reform is appropriate since it is the "end of the age", therefore, issues like racism, sexism and ageism which should not be an problem for so-called Christians needs to be put aside for the sake of those who churches are actually able to help, which is most people anywhere in the world. The truth is that church involvement during the "end of age" endeavors seems to be an observed necessity because it enables (1) more avenues for legitimate Christian education and (2) pastoral support. This has been repeatedly expressed because the help of church leadership and their respective church workers is merely an opportunity to remove the many millstones that hangs around their necks (Matthew 18:6). My work makes the errors of churches ways obvious to anyone who would read it, but overall the main point is that these errors can be fixed and made right by Church leadership, and therefore churches who genuinely desire to (1) redeem their name and faith (2) save their souls and (3) help save the souls of other people. Therefore, if there are people who are genuine in their efforts to repent (change) then they have very good prospects, as it is understood that big messes take some time to unravel, but the whole point is to actually find ways to address and resolve them. Hence, here's the most obvious first step to resolving Christian issues, and it should be taken into consideration by the right people, such as church leadership and church workers who may read this article:

- Luke 10:16 - ¹⁶ Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."

Therefore, let it be remembered that salvation must be possible for those with TMOTB because the story of "the body of Satan" will only ever come from those who are saved (receive the Holy Spirit), as this is the only way that the full story of the "end of the age" can be told. The truth is that I only provided my own story to help save other people, and this is because it's obvious that Biblical prophecy is what many people's faith and hope will rest on (a degree of certainty i.e. if I do this, then this will be the outcome). The primary reason why I tried to hide my identity was to protect 'the church in Philadelphia', who I never told of my troubles for the sake of their own wellbeing (so yes, I am technically "alone", Revelation 12). Hence, as written in the first signs of the times article, the 'church in Philadelphia' know nothing about the current times because they do not read The JBEP articles (excluding the first two). However, it is only natural that once captivity ends that the 'church in Philadelphia' will be told everything, and that is because they are people who can be trusted. Furthermore, I am a private person and would have never made any disclosures at all, but clearly it seems that the Lord, the Most High God, requires it of me to a certain extent.

THE ONE WHO CONQUERS

The one who conquers is someone who acts in the right way, which is to live a Christian lifestyle, therefore, it is by nature that a Christian such as myself conquers their foes, immature Christians or Christian converts (Revelation 3). To conquer is to live a Christian lifestyle, and so, the reward for those who conquer must fit the relevant criteria which is... “being a legitimate Christian”. Therefore, to the unwise it needs to be stated that the “one who conquers” isn’t necessary a “him” i.e. a man. This was made clear in the mini-book, ‘Lost in Translation-Volume 2: women/wives cannot speak in church’ (Elekwachi, 2021b). Secondly, Christian people conquer through the love of Christ, for it is written: 37 No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ~ Romans 8:37. This means that anyone who “conquers” would not choose to try and “win” by causing their neighbor (another person) harm by any means, such as committing the “abomination of desolation”; purposefully trying to ruin the efforts of a legitimate Christian when they are obviously trying to help other people; trying to “compel” Christians; teaching “the deep things of Satan” and “the teachings of Balaam”; or choosing to learn from those who teach any lies, falsehood or deception associated with the Christian faith. In addition, it is also written: 12 From the days of John the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.~ Matthew 11:12, therefore, as noted in ‘Calling: Special Edition’ pages 28-29, it is those who are committed to repentance who “force” their way to salvation, or those who are already righteous who “force” the spiritual conquest of their foes, but through the power of the Lord, the Most High God (Isaiah 40:31, Psalm 27:13-14, James 5:7-8, James 1:2-4). This is what it means to be violent in faith or zealous for righteousness. After all, the violent take the kingdom by force, and that force is (1) genuine belief in the power of the Lord’s righteousness (2) believing in God’s love for Christians (3) and believing that the Lord is able to deliver His children from the power of Satan and those with TMOTB. Hence, only a real Christian would understand that this is a fight of faith (1 Timothy 6:12), and I have fought the good fight of faith, but clearly my foes have not.

More so, let it be known to those belonging to the ‘church in Thyatira’ and the ‘church in Pergamum’, because of the nature of the “abomination of desolation”, the reward for the “one who conquers” was forfeited to me the very moment the “end of the age” begun (Revelation 2:17, Revelation 2:26-28). To put it plainly, the “design” of your Satanic witches curse was badly flawed, which also caused it to backfire on all those “tied” into it (everyone with TMOTB is “one in Satan”), and as a result, I was granted the spiritual title and prizes of your churches without being involved in any dirty work. Regardless, because of your own wickedness, the Lord Jesus Christ blessed me with bonus prizes – and so, thanks, but not really. Therefore, know that whatever was “set up” will be cut off and cast out. Furthermore, I will remind those who committed the “abomination of desolation” that the Holy Spirit actively counteracts it, and that is because the Holy Spirit (the Spirit of Jesus Christ) is the greatest Spirit of them all, and so, if my foes thought they could devour/eat (overcome) me, know that it’s you who will be overcome by the lion of Judah, the Lord Jesus Christ (The Gospel of Thomas).

It is also worth mentioning, that I have already understood and written an article about what those with TMOTB did, as Isaiah 29, Sirach 51 and Wisdom of Solomon 17 explains it, and I experienced it, and so of course I would always work out the “mystery”. So, my question is why are the wicked (unrepentant) surprised at the final consequences of their actions? Therefore, it needs to be made clear to all of my persecutors, their supporters, and even the repentant with TMOTB: none of you are innocent, therefore stop pretending to be victims. The truth is that you intentionally put “good” people in prison, and it is only because that you were dragged into an unfortunate circumstance that you actually “made noise” about the mess that you created, therefore, know that you will bear the consequences of your actions one way or another, whether it is severe or light discipline or simply punishment. Hence, if Babylonians thought that the “abomination of desolation” was a backdoor into the ‘church in Philadelphia’, or becoming “one in Christ” then you were 100% wrong, and clearly need to resort to basic logic instead of “Satanic fantasy”. It is also obvious that the reward for the “one who conquers” in the ‘church in Thyatira’ would always be allocated to one person, so my question is: would those who belong to the ‘church in Thyatira’ have fought each other to the death to claim a prize? Because from the ‘inside’ looking ‘outside’, it is the natural assumption. The only exception for the multiple allocation of prizes to the “one who conquers” is the ‘church in Smyrna’, which is granted to all those allocated to it (all those who died or will die up until an unknown time, which is presumably the end of captivity). Therefore, anyone who has Christian relatives who have died in Biafra should take comfort in this fact, and the same goes for those with Christian relations who were given over to the power of the sword (Revelation 2:8-11, Revelation 13:10).

The following is expressed based on God-given wisdom and knowledge: the time of “captivity” has been defined by a noted lack of zeal from those from the ‘church in Laodicea’, and so, the reward for “the one who conquers” was forfeited. The forfeiture of the prize was awarded to anyone in the body of Christ who somewhat fit the criteria (me). The reason for this outcome is that there has been an observed lack of courage from those who already has some knowledge of the Truth, but did nothing out of fear or a lack of humility, which is a shame. Therefore, the same extends to the ‘Church in Ephesus’, whose “lampstand was removed from its place” (Revelation 2:5) and the ‘church in Sardis’ (Revelation 3:5). In direct comparison to other so-called Christians, whether ‘living’ or ‘dead’, upon “learning” of the times in an unexpected and unappreciated manner, my immediate response was to make use of my time and skills to develop ‘Calling Special: Edition’ (“key”), despite my own personal circumstances and ongoing experiences. Hence, the reality of my own context is that I did what was possible in my “little power” (Revelation 3:8), and so, to those who read this article and have “big power”, especially church leadership: the question is what did you do, and what have you done? Therefore, to people in positions of great influence, whether they are “leaders”, pastors or priests in an already established church organizations who know about The VMFCP: when a “key” was shared was it not in your power to direct your people to the right person, or to seek the right person on their behalf? After all, it is common sense that the person who developed the “key” is the only one who is able to make it more useful. Hence, let it be known that Isaiah 22 is in play, but it is not one of my spiritual titles. I shared the “key” months ago, and so, it seems that whoever holds the spiritual titles of Shebna and Eliakim, whose identities have been long suspected, lacked the common sense to understand “the message”. Therefore, if you were hoping that God would blame me for your own failures then you thought wrong, and so, if you ever come across or hear of this article: woe betide you and the many souls that you most likely sold and spent by your lack of initiative and ill-consider course of action in such a crucial time.

A WASTE OF GIFTS AND SKILLS – THE REALITY OF A CAPTIVE SCRIBE

As a legitimate Christian and Scribe (Servant), it is obvious that Jesus Christ i.e. the Lord, the Most High God, is my ONLY master, therefore, I serve no other god (Matthew 13:52). This means that Satan is not and will never be the master of God’s House despite the continued delusions of the wicked, who continually commit futile acts of persecution, which only brings them one step closer to the gates of hell (Matthew 10:25). Therefore, let it be known to anyone who comes across this article: I do not follow the voice of a stranger (Satan) or that of his children (John 10:5). To put it plainly to my foes: your actions have always screamed “cult” and it appears that (1) you can’t even tell or (2) you think that cult behavior is cool or cute, but just know that it is very off-putting and can be described in the likeness of Beelzebul-inspired “hive-mindness” or rather “hive-mindlessness”. I describe the phenomenon in this way because it is in the nature of “bees” to follow without thought, while not realizing that each action taken against Christians is like losing your stinger. After all, if Babylon knew that a fire and a siege is a metaphor for persecution (Isaiah 29), then they would have never committed the “abomination of desolation” in the first place, rather they would have avoided it instead. However, it is known that the blind cannot “see”, and so it is worth expressing this fact: based on my experiences it is obvious that Babylonian’s actually believe that they can choose and control how Scriptural prophecies happen in real life based on their own beliefs and Biblical interpretations, which can be described as wickedly stupid. Therefore, it needs to be made clear that the anti-Christ, Jezebel and top ranking “kings” are blind, deaf and wicked, more so, they cannot read nor recognize the signs of the times. For those who no longer want to listen to liars, try to forget whatever you have seen or been told because it (1) comes from Satan and (2) are most likely twisted lies that aren't worth paying attention to, for it is written:

- Mark 13:22 - ²²*For there will arise false Christ's and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.*

False Christ's refers to THE anti-Christ and other delusional people who actually believe that they are the reincarnation of the Lord Jesus Christ; and false prophets are those whose prophecies change or are proven wrong (a non-Christian prophet). The truth is that it's impossible for Jesus to have already returned, and that is because all the signs have not been completed yet. Therefore, if you know anyone who claims the above then run away (leave and do not listen to them) because such people belong to Satan, and not Jesus Christ, and so, they are definitely not Christian nor will they ever be. More so, anyone who claims to be the reincarnation of the Lord's angels such as Michael, Raphael or Gabriel should also be put in the same category, which is false. It is known that those who believe what is false also belong to Satan, as birds of a feather will always flock together. In contrast, a Christian's prophecies, whether they are a prophet or simply have the gift of prophecy, are eventually fulfilled at the right time, which is when God ordains it to happen. Therefore, to those who are Christians-in-conversion: if you believe that my work is the Truth and follow the instructions of my teachings, then you belong to Jesus. Hence, those who believe the Truth are the sheep of the good shepherd (John 10:27), but to be clear you are following Jesus through believing in the Holy Bible and doing His commandments, which is what The VMFCP teaches. I am obviously not Jesus Christ, nor have I ever claimed to be, but if you thought that is what I meant in the first signs of the times series article, then you are prone to falsehood and should correct yourself. Falsehood is basically false behavior such as choosing to accept or tell lies despite knowing the Truth, or knowing that you are sinning and trying to "hide" it (Revelation 22:15). Therefore, the logical conclusion is that (1) I am not a false Christ and (2) I may have the Spiritual title of Elijah (the Prophet), but I don't really prophecy, I "read", which helps me "see" what direction the Lord is leading me in and what will eventually happen in the future.

To return to the main point, my reality is that of a captive Scribe, which means that I do not have a full set of Apostle (Scribe) gifts because (1) I am in captivity, which means that my Satanic Babylonian foes have temporary authority over me, and (2) the possessing of spiritual gifts in a time where people lack Truth would only make believing more confusing, for example, people may wonder whether my gifts come from Jesus or Satan? Hence, it should be made clear that nothing of the Truth can come from Satan, it can only come from the Holy Spirit (the Lord, the Most High God), which means that it is my spiritual gifts of faith, wisdom, understanding, knowledge and discerning of spirits that has helped me do this very work. Hence, for me, the "time, times and half a time" of captivity (Revelation 12) have been nothing more than an opportune period of refinement (testing) for my actual Scribe work that will begin in the future, and so, it is the normal expectation that I will receive a full set of Holy Spirit/Apostle gifts in due time, but those who are devoted to Satan (unrepentant) cannot benefit from my spiritual gifts, nor can their dependents (Matthew 10:1, 1 Corinthians 12:4-11). My circumstance is made clear in Revelation chapter 13, which states and prophesizes that for 42 months, the body of Satan (Satan's kingdom, which includes demons and those with TMOTB) was granted temporary authority over all Christians, which obviously includes me, and this is what diminishes my normal Apostle abilities such as making me unable to cast out unclean spirits or instant healing (Matthew 10:1). To elaborate, 42 months is assumed to actually be equivalent to three and a half years, however, it is known that Biblical and standard measures of time are not always the same, for example, a "day" (Isaiah 29:18) is not a day, it is a time of unknown beginning and unspecified duration. Furthermore, I am unsure of when the actual start of tribulation was for a number of reasons: the main reason is that the "abomination of desolation" has four different factors, which can be described as oppression, misdirection, control and confusion. Hence, it is when the "setting up" of the first two factors were done that makes the timeline hard to track, but more than enough time has passed to know that it is now towards the end of "captivity". Furthermore, enough time has also passed for me to confirm that the "end of the age" is in its latter stages. It is evident that the half-way point has already passed, and it appears that less than 1.5 years remains until the Lord's actual return, and so, the clock is ticking.

- Revelation 13: 4-10 - ⁴They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" ⁵A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to him. ⁶He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. ⁷It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. ⁸All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. ⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear. ¹⁰If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

- NOTE: The 'Book of Life' is not a book that is made by human hands, which means that I do not have the power to add or take from it, but I can discern whether someone is a Christian-in-conversion or not (Christian potential). The 'Book of Life' is a way of conveying that in Heaven, the Lord, the Most High God a.k.a. Jesus Christ has a record of those who are Christian, and obviously He controls whose name is written in it. As noted in the Holy Bible, everyone begins with their name in the 'Book of Life', but it is peoples choices that cause it to be blotted out, which leads to permanent or temporary ‘death’ (Psalm 69:28). More so, Jesus is also the “Lamb who has been killed”, but it is known that He was also resurrected and ascended to Heaven, and so, it is simply that a poor choice of words was used when it was translated, as it could have simply said “Jesus”. Furthermore, it needs to be made clear that there is currently no other lamb in existence besides the Lord Jesus Christ, Himself, and if anyone becomes a real lamb then that would only happen after the Lord’s actual return. Hence, the ‘Book of Life’ from Revelation 13:8 has nothing to do with any events that take place on earth, also known as the “land of the living”. Last but not least, those whose names are written in the ‘Book of Life’ from the foundation of the earth, must be ‘righteous souls’ living in this current lifetime, such as the captive faithful Christian remnant, and so, of course some names would always have been in the ‘Book of Life’. But for the repentant with TMOTB, your goal is to be added to the ‘Book of Life’ in this lifetime, as there must be some souls among you that Jesus believes to be “unrefined” or “misguided” ‘righteous souls’ that need some “polishing” and “direction” i.e. diamonds in the rough to varying degrees.

Overall, the reality of a “side-lined Scribe” is basically a limited set of spiritual gifts, but the gifts I was granted have been made use of appropriately and reasonably despite the effects of the “abomination of desolation”, and the ongoing persecution carried out by Australian Babylonians with TMOTB. Therefore, it is of note that the reason for the numerous, but minor grammatical errors in my work, is that the “abomination of desolation” makes it hard to focus, and so, many of the initial errors in ‘Calling: Special Edition’ were actually the result of me editing my work after it had been edited and proof-read by my mother and father. Hence, the proofing issues are my own fault, but at the same time it wasn’t and isn’t really my fault, because I have continually been handicapped by my condition. It is only by God’s grace that I have managed to continually develop The VMFCP content by myself, as there is no one else known to me that is trusted i.e. non-hostile or genuine people who don’t have TMOTB. More so, the ‘church in Philadelphia’ were kept out of the greater majority of my work for previously mentioned reasons (Elekwachi, 2021a). Regardless of my circumstance, I always did what I could and what was reasonable, for example I corrected any grammatical errors that were identified during the review of my work, furthermore, the elaborations that I added to ‘Calling: Special Edition’ were done to make the process “easier” or “less daunting” (book updates). Hence, I know that my work may not be perfect at this time, but it gets the main ideas and points across in a manner that is easy to understand, therefore, it is only the rejection or acceptance of my teachings that determines one’s place in Christianity, as it is only really based on choosing to follow God’s commandments in a manner that encourages individual choice and free-thinking. Hence, the role of a Servant of the Lord, the Most High God, is simply to help other people by whatever means deemed necessary, wise, reasonable and suitable to my own circumstances, and so, it is not those who “eat and drink” who define my role nor my work, that comes from God and God alone (if you thought otherwise, then you lack Christian potential). Therefore, for “the world” who thought that by trying to diminish all my options of working to obtain honest means, let it be clear that an Apostle has every right to profit from their knowledge, skills and expertise, which is to sell their “cloak or garment” for a sword, and my sword is my work, whether written, spoken, creating teaching resources or training those who will teach others (Luke 22:36). Therefore, to those who persecuted me and continually tried to destroy all my means of livelihood: your wickedness will never be forgotten.

THE FOOLISH WOMAN & THE FORBIDDEN WOMAN – THE SPIRITUAL TITLE OF ALL BOOTLEG & ILLEGITIMATE ENDEAVORS

The spiritual title of “foolish woman” and the “forbidden woman” is one that belongs to many if not most individuals, churches or organizations that proclaim to be Christian, but are only “Christian-ish”. To be clear there is only one true Christianity (Galatians 1:6-9), and so, when something legitimately Christian exists it only acts to emphasize the illegitimacy of what is “Christian-ish” for the purpose of (1) correction (reproof) and (2) salvation (receiving the Holy Spirit). Therefore, it follows that those who lack the proper anointing to teach (give commandments) and ‘living waters’ (the Holy Spirit) are automatically bestowed with the spiritual title of “foolish woman” or “forbidden woman”. The reason for why this occurs, and its severe consequences are simple: disrespect and dishonesty towards God and His will. Disrespect reflects a lack of humility and respect towards God’s Word, the Holy Bible, His will, and His choices, and therefore, “foolish woman” and the “forbidden woman” are those who ignore the commandments and instructions of the very book that their supposed faith rests on. Dishonesty reflects how people approach or handle matters of faith based on the truth of their own circumstances. For example, people would know if they have (1) received the Holy Spirit (2) if they are truly anointed, and what the anointing is for (3) how developed their knowledge and understanding of the Truth is, and therefore, if they actually teach the Truth, half-Truths or “convenient lies”. Hence, if people have not received the Holy Spirit, then it means that they are not anointed, and if the first two are lacking then it means that the knowledge and understanding of the Truth is not developed, and so, it makes their teachings “empty words”, half-Truths or “convenient lies” that lead to no one’s salvation. Therefore, the problem with most Christian endeavors is a lack of legitimacy among the “Christian-ish”, and so, the consequences of “illegitimacy” will be explained.

In brief, it is not pleasing to the Lord, the Most High God, for those outside the Body of Christ to mishandle or misuse the Holy Bible for any endeavors of the Christian faith. The reason for this is because, those who are “illegitimate” cannot explain the Truth properly, and that is because they have no real connection to the Lord, the Most High God, as this only comes with the Holy Spirit. When someone receives the Holy Spirit it allows for ‘living waters’ to “flow”, for example, it is fine for people to follow the instructions of my books, but if someone without the Holy Spirit uses my work for other people it becomes “empty words”, and there is no “flow” because the person lacks ‘living waters’. This same concept extends to any “Christian-ish teachings, which is essentially ‘dead work’. Furthermore, an anointing is based on suitability, which is determined by the Lord, the Most High God, and therefore, it is the two factors of the Holy Spirit and an anointing which fully confers legitimacy. As a result the person who has received the Holy Spirit and has an actual anointing would have a defined role in the Body of Christ, and therefore, it is from such people the ‘living waters’ can “flow” into others.

Therefore, if people choose to teach while knowing that they (1) do not have the Holy Spirit (2) are not anointed and (3) are most likely misleading people through a lack of proper Biblical knowledge and understanding: then the penalty is ‘death’, which means that Jesus has no plans to grant such people the Holy Spirit. This is why I expressed the spiritual issue associated with the use of my work in the article, ‘The signs of the times: the mark of the beast is a metaphor’, which is mainly about “soul safety”, but is also obviously an intellectual property issue. Therefore, the “message” will be repeated once more, and perhaps people will take it more seriously this time, but know that if you choose not to follow this instruction then understand that you are ‘dead’ and have no prospects. But for those who choose to cease from bootleg and illegitimate endeavors and approach matters with openness, honesty and integrity: it is merely the chance to save your soul and become a legitimate Christian.

- Romans 2:21-24 - ²¹You therefore who teach another, don’t you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn’t steal, do you steal? ²²You who say a man shouldn’t commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³You who glory in the law, do you dishonor God by disobeying the law? ²⁴For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” just as it is written.

The Scripture, Romans 2:21-24, means that because of hypocrisy and the lack of legitimacy among those of the Christian faith who teach, whether they are priests, pastors, church workers or theological scholars: it has caused people to not believe in Jesus and the Holy Bible. This is because it is strange when someone who claims to be of the Christian faith disregards and ignores the commandments of the God that they profess to worship, or whose Word they proclaim that they can ‘read’ with proficiency. Therefore, the Lord does not choose or “elect” people who choose to sin to be teachers – because it makes things seem “off”. However, when it is the “end of the age”, which imparts time restrictions and limited options, it is obviously the only circumstance that the correct people among the repentant would be appointed to teaching and pastoral support such as Apostles and pastors. The reason for this phenomenon is that in such a circumstance, this course of action suits the needs of most people, who most likely need someone who “understands them”, whether it is related to TMOTB, cults, sorcery, or persecution, as that is an area that I do not understand, and so, repentant Christians are required to “match” the needs of those who they teach or pastor. The same also applies to the complexities associated with customs and culture. Overall, the “big idea” is that people who teach or pastor should be appointed strategically for (1) the sake of people’s needs (2) the best use of time, and (3) according to proper consideration of Biblical doctrine:

- James 3:1 - Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment.

Therefore, to anyone who is participating in bootleg or illegitimate endeavors, here is a quick and simple “cross-reference” that reveals the grievous error of your ways. Those who undertake bootleg Christian endeavors (particularly with my own work, whether they are profiting from it or not) are automatically assigned the spiritual title of “foolish woman” from the book of Proverbs because they “fit the criteria”.

- Proverbs 9 – ¹Wisdom has built her house. She has carved out her seven pillars. ²She has prepared her meat. She has mixed her wine. She has also set her table. ³She has sent out her maidens. She cries from the highest places of the city: ⁴“Whoever is simple, let him turn in here! As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,⁵“Come, eat some of my bread, Drink some of the wine which I have mixed! ⁶Leave your simple ways, and live. Walk in the way of understanding.”⁷ One who corrects a mocker invites insult. One who reproves a wicked man invites abuse. ⁸Don’t reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you. Reprove a wise person, and he will love you.⁹ Instruct a wise person, and he will be still wiser. Teach a righteous person, and he will increase in learning.¹⁰ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. ¹¹For by me your days will be multiplied. The years of your life will be increased.¹² If you are wise, you are wise for yourself. If you mock, you alone will bear it.
 - NOTE: The Lord the Most High God, granted me the spiritual title of “Wisdom”, who is also the faithful “wife” referenced in Proverbs 5.

¹³The foolish woman is loud, undisciplined, and knows nothing.¹⁴ She sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,¹⁵ to call to those who pass by, who go straight on their ways,¹⁶ “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here.” as for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,¹⁷ “Stolen water is sweet. Food eaten in secret is pleasant.”¹⁸ But he doesn’t know that the departed spirits are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol

- NOTE: Verse 18 indicates that the ‘dead’ who seek the ‘dead’ will be sentenced to hell for their own ignorance i.e. only the ‘dead’ tell and listen to convenient lies that can be verified as incorrect by looking at the 10 commandments.

Proverbs 9 conveys that people who use my work such as The VMFCP content i.e. books and DMWs (according to proper use) and genuinely follow the instructions will eventually receive the Holy Spirit. However, if there is the misuse of my work by “foolish women”, who are those who have received no permission to use my work, or those who simply desire to profit from someone else’s effort – then my work automatically becomes ‘stolen water’ and ‘bad food’ (corrupted teachings) (Elekwachi, 2021e). Therefore, it follows that ‘stolen water’ is not helpful to anyone, especially to those who steal it, and that is because it is only detrimental to the “thief” and the “thieves party”. To elaborate on the Scripture, Proverbs 9:13-8, it means that anyone who chooses to serve, drink/eat and seek “foolish women’s” ‘stolen water and hidden food’ will remain ‘dead’ and will not ‘live’ because of their own stupidity, and that is because legitimate work is conducted openly, not run based on “stolen materials”, and not conducted “in secret”. This infers that any genuineness in someone’s efforts to help other people is reflected by acquiring the proper permission and training to teach the Truth in a fruitful manner, which ensures the “flow” of ‘living waters’. Hence, the common sense lesson is simply: (1) do not do what the Lord, the Most High God, has not appointed or anointed you to do (2) do not do things of importance that you have no skill or substantial knowledge to do properly and (3) go to the original and correct source, such as the Scribe who developed and produced the legitimate “materials”. The obvious reasoning behind point number 3 is that there is no wellspring of life or ‘living waters’ with the ‘dead’, and so, it follows that ‘life’ can only come from the ‘living’. Therefore, if this has happened, but people already understood this lesson and chose to do the wrong thing anyway, the next logical question is why would people choose to do it? To make money by unethical means (the love of money)? Hatred (racism, sexism and ageism)? Wickedness? Or all three? Whatever the case may be, it follows that when these 3 sins are together then those participating in bootleg endeavors are only asking for ‘death’ and have no prospects at all. Therefore, it is worth emphasizing that divine judgement has already begun, which means that the Lord’s forbearance and patience has already run out. Paired with the fact that people already have TMOTB, it only emphasizes that bootleg endeavors are obviously one of the worst choices to make in such times...

- Romans 2:4-6 – ⁴ Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? ⁵ But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God; ⁶ who “will pay back to everyone according to their works:”

If anyone’s excuse for being involved in bootleg endeavors, and therefore a lack of guilt is that, “Jesus does not take evil into account because God is love” (1 Corinthians 13:5, 1 John 4:8), then here is a lesson on Biblical context. Those who love God keep His commandments (John 14:15) and as a result they receive the Holy Spirit, which is an acknowledgment of God’s greater love for that person. Therefore, if people do not do God’s commandments by doing things like participating in bootleg or illegitimate endeavors, then it follows that such people cannot receive the Holy Spirit. Do not forget that even the Bible reveals that God loves some people more than others, and that there are people who God “hates” (dislikes) or describes as “evil and unthankful”. This concept is made crystal clear by a number of Scriptures:

- John 14:21 – ²¹ One who has my commandments and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him.
- Luke 6:35 – *But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.
- Romans 9:13 – Even as it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”
- Malachi 1:2-3 – “I have loved you,” says Yahweh. Yet you say, “How have you loved us?” “Wasn’t Esau Jacob’s brother?” says Yahweh, “Yet I loved Jacob; ³ but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness.”
 - NOTE: Esau was a wealthy man, yet he was not beloved by the Lord, the Most High God. Therefore, it is not good to mistake material blessings for God’s favor, because it is not always one and the same. More importantly, the reason why the Abrahamic covenant was inherited by Jacob and His descendants was because Jacob followed God’s commandments, and therefore his parent’s commandments. Whereas Esau did not, instead he chose to disrespect God’s commandments i.e. choosing to marry a wife from the Canaanite peoples, which was not to be done in those times (Genesis 24:1-3, Genesis 26:34-35). Last but not least, Esau willingly gave away his birthright for a plate of food when he was momentarily hungry after hunting. This means that because Esau didn’t choose to say no to Jacob or quickly prepare his own meal, he literally “unblessed” all the people or races who are descended from him. (Genesis 25:31-34, Hebrews 12:16).

Therefore, it remains that God truly loves those who love Him, and so, they are forgiven of their sins i.e. their sins (evil) is not taken into account anymore, but it remains that the sins (evil) of those who do not receive the Holy Spirit are taken into account at any time (especially during a time of divine judgement, Psalm 10). Hence, if people do not want to face the consequences of participating in bootleg endeavors then stop and repent, otherwise it is known how the story ends. This same consequence extends to those who were or are happy to be served by bootleg “teachers”, because it is not Christian to be aware of wrongdoing and then choose to act in a manner that directly supports or encourages it. More so, such actions are made worse when they are done to “oppress” or “outcast” the person who God ordained to train those who teach others, and who offered to teach people who were obviously not interested for whatever “justified” reason. Therefore, let it be known that rejection is costly, especially when a platform/space was offered and created, as a means of bringing people together in a conducive and open manner for anyone who wanted to learn (YouTube, which was actually an attempt to start a church assembly...). Therefore, to those who sought or seek any bootleg endeavors that may exist, know that your fate may be sealed. The bootleg endeavors of the “foolish woman” are not the only issue in Christianity, and that is because the illegitimate endeavors of the “forbidden woman” are also a major issue, which is conveyed by the Scripture, Proverbs 5. It is of note that the Bible subsection headings are often incorrect and do not describe the contents properly, for example, Proverbs 5 has nothing to do with actual adultery, it is a metaphor that describes the outcomes of legitimate and illegitimate Christian endeavors.

- Proverbs 5 –¹My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Turn your ear to my understanding,² that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.³ For the lips of an adulteress drip honey. Her mouth is smoother than oil,⁴ but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword.⁵ Her feet go down to death. Her steps lead straight to Sheol. ⁶ She gives no thought to the way of life. Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it.⁷ Now therefore, my sons, listen to me. Don't depart from the words of my mouth.⁸ Remove your way far from her. Don't come near the door of her house,⁹ lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel one; ¹⁰ lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich another man's house.¹¹ You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed,¹² and say, “How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof.¹³ I haven't obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!¹⁴ I have come to the brink of utter ruin, among the gathered assembly.”

yourself alone, not for strangers with you.¹⁸ Let your spring be blessed. Rejoice in the wife of your youth.¹⁹ A loving doe and a graceful deer— let her breasts satisfy you at all times. Be captivated always with her love. ²⁰ For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another? ²¹ For the ways of man are before Yahweh’s eyes. He examines all his paths.²² The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him. The cords of his sin hold him firmly.²³ He will die for lack of instruction. In the greatness of his foolish woman, he will go astray.’

The “forbidden woman” is a metaphor for those who teach “Christian-ish” Christianity that leads to no ‘life’ because Truth is lacking, which means there is no “flow” of ‘living waters’ or an anointing, and so, it cannot lead to salvation (receiving the Holy Spirit). Therefore, to the Lord, the Most High God, the “forbidden woman” is compared to a mistress/adulteress, because the teaching does not come from His “waters”. Hence, the “wife” is the one with the true and proper teachings of the Lord, the Most High God, because a faithful “wife” is Truthful. The faithful “wife” is wisdom which is one of the seven spirits of God (anointing). This makes my circumstance unique because I: (1) hold the spiritual title of wisdom (2) have received the Holy spirit, and (3) through the Holy Spirit I received the gift of wisdom (anointing). This means that I am connected to ‘living waters’ in a manner that is rare and abundant, which can only be described as “legitimate legitimacy”. More so, it is because of my legitimacy that true knowledge and understanding of Biblical and Christian Truths, including its mysteries, can “flow” into those who are taught by it, which leads to receiving the Holy Spirit when instructions are followed. Therefore, for other people to become legitimate, which allows them to provide ‘living waters’ to other people, they need to be legitimately trained as an Apostle, which confers an anointing and receiving the Holy Spirit. This means that it is not suitable for “forbidden women”, who are individuals, churches or church associations who have no ‘life’ (Holy Spirit); anointing to teach “Christian-ish” or legitimate teachings. As the obvious result is many people practicing and following false and disrespectful doctrine, all in the Name of a God who they refuse to worship properly. Therefore, because the common factors of disrespect and dishonesty are done by those dubbed a “forbidden woman”: the same consequences of the “foolish woman” are incurred by those who in selfish pride, and a great lack of humility set aside God’s commandments for the traditions of men (Mark 7:5-9). Hence, the only hope for those who hold the spiritual title of a “forbidden woman” in such times is repentance, which requires legitimate reform.

ARTICLE PINPOINT 1

To put my experience of the “abomination of desolation” in perspective: I literally had no choice but to fast, pray, study and teach my way through the “fiery trial” in whatever way was reasonable and possible. Hence, once this was clearly understood by me, I simply chose to make use of my knowledge, skills and experiences in a way that could also help other people. However, it appears that the Lord, the Most High God, is most likely delaying who receives the Holy Spirit until circumstances are more “secure”, and so, taking repentance (change) one step at a time is the best assurance until there are legitimate structures in place. However, this can only happen if the right people choose to repent. As it must be clear by now that the Lord, the Most High God, did not expect me to help 50%-74.99% of the entire world population with TMOTB by myself, especially when ongoing and current persecution by the Babylonian masses with the TMOTB, language barriers, culture and context must be taken into account (Elekwachi, 2021a, Elekwachi, 2021d). Therefore, it makes perfect sense that current church leadership would become the Apostles of their own assemblies because (1) they have the appropriate and relevant background knowledge, but it is only correction (fine tuning) and “gap filling that is required (2) established churches can provide a controlled environment where its own leadership and workers can be trained to be an Apostle or pastors (3) established churches can provide a controlled environment where people can engage in Christian learning and be provided with pastoral support (4) church assemblies already have their own established communities, and so, those among them can form the right party to “move forward” with (5) the translation of the Truth is important, especially when there are different cultural contexts to consider (6) by legitimizing churches, the misuse of the Truth by greedy charlatans is minimized, and (7) this whole idea maintains the intended purpose of Christian churches, which is the salvation of souls.

ARTICLE PINPOINT 2

Last but not least, it is better to try to change (repent) then to knowingly condemn yourself to eternal damnation in hell, because there is a limited amount of time left until the “end of the age” is complete (less than 1.5 years remain until final divine judgement). Therefore, if people struggle to believe in Jesus then remember that “the end of the age” prophecies from the book of Revelation are similar to the concepts and stories of dooms day; the rapture; the apocalypse; the prophecies of Nostradamus; the greater and lesser signs of the end of the Islamic hadith; Ragnarök and Kalki from the Hindu stories of faith: and these are prophecies which have been spoken of from ages past to present. Therefore, those who do not believe should take into account that other gods of other faiths have long revealed the same event for all mankind, and so, it is much more than coincidence: it is the Truth. It is only the why the “end” happens that may differ, for example, it may simply be that many religions are altered or “mixed” versions of the One True faith of Jesus Christ, who is the Lord of lords, God of gods and King of Kings. If so, it only proves that other gods act in deception, falsehood and trickery to draw their worshippers away from the Truth, in an act of selfish wickedness designed to ensure that their souls share their fate (Elekwachi, 2021c, Elekwachi, 2021e). Therefore, to those who read my work, the truth is that I could never do much with “little power” (Revelation 3:8), but it’s time for those who have “big power” to help and join ‘The House of the Living’, especially when it is clear that there are circumstances that are (1) convenient, for example, accepting or rejecting an Apostle is an easy influencer of fate (Luke 10:16) (2) there is no hope in ‘The House of the Dead’, who are Babylon, the “foolish and forbidden women” who refuse to repent, and those with TMOTB who are devoted to destruction because they choose to continually do evil (Isaiah 33:1) and (3) there are favorable odds for salvation i.e. a 50-74.99% chance of receiving the Holy Spirit or being sanctified (Elekwachi, 2021d). Therefore, with the elaborations made in this article, I repeat in humility what I expressed in the first article of this series, ‘The signs of the times: the mark of the beast is a metaphor’, “...my prayer is that the Lord blesses such endeavors for the sake of those who He will save, and also those who take the courage to help them. Therefore, it would be greatly appreciated if you send this article to your church or church leaders, as the prospect of this endeavor depends on their willingness to help, and so, if this article reaches those to whom it is intended, please contact me, Chinasom Uzodimma Elekwachi” using the email: inquiries@independentchristiancounsel.com.
